PATTERN NOTES A slip stitch is an un-worked stitch. To slip a stitch you simply skip it carrying the working yarn across the peg to the next peg where you make the next stitch, and continue with the pattern. In this pattern, lift the stitch to be slipped off of the peg, pass the working yarn across the back of the peg and then replace the stitch on the peg. Go on ...
